PS1

EDEN

Wait

It's second-hand smoke, fucking up my desk
Like you as you are, can you air my text?
I feel out of time, closing in on space
You been in my head and not paying any rent

I got two more lives, I got seven spent
I found missing time, bending it
But it won't solve for me
How can I bridge the lie to who you are?

If it's how you are, it's true
I'd follow you down –
Always down when you are
I love when you push it back
I miss how you used to talk back
Talk shit

So I keep staying up all night
Killing back some time
I keep thoughts of you
Thought loops
Whatever I want
Whoa

Am I still what it is you like?
See you out sometime
Blue ticks, I'm a red light
Confused how to get right
Only come through
And we're better off without it
I don't wanna be in love
I don't wanna be in love no more

And dipping PS1 just to catch up on you
You been M.I.A., but you text no different
I feel levels up and you don't know, don't care
For old times' sake, it's human nature
And feel it deep, so low, embraces
Dual SIM
Said she phoning it in
I'm not convinced
I know some day some under paid
Karma gon' come collect
Come out with it don't hold back
Things tend to balance through the madness
Fact is I heard that you've been

Staying up all night
Yeah, yeah, yeah
Revenge killing some time
Still I keep thoughts of you
Thoughts can do whatever I want
Whoa

Am I still what it is you like?

Yeah, yeah
See you all the time
Blue tick, you're a red light
Only come through
I don't wanna be in love
I don't wanna be in love no more

Yeah

Peak sunrise from the hotel
You were by my side
Stayed there the whole night
It's nothing I
Don t wanna get devotional
You see what you wanna see
