

Soul

EDEN

And it breaks my heart, to be so left behind at the start, when I always thought I'd be so much farther, so far away from here

Souls on fire

But it feels so heavy, but it feels so heavy, so I'm HK bound but it means nothing to me 'cause I feel at home

When there's no one left to scream at all I've done, But I've learned to let fear go.

'Cause all I've done, 'cause all I've done, 'cause all I've done is give the world mine
