Statues

EDEN

I'll break the silence
And watch it fall in pieces
The aftermath of passive violence
Then "he said that she said she cheated"
And oh, I got a feeling
I think you should know

I'm trying to find hope
There's nothing left to hold
I'm stuck down here in this hole
I'll dig my way out

I'll stand just like a statue
Just like you
Acting like the sky's just about to fall
With everything I can't do
I can't move
In the end I'll find my way back home
(Find myself at home)
Just say something
Don't leave me here with nothing
I know I deserve more than this
The self-destruction
I'll think 'till I can't function
I should've seen it coming to this

They say it's not having this
And you're one shot 'till it's all over
Say it "I just want out"
Just let your words wash over me
And oh, a sinking feeling
The flash fire's gone out

I'm trying to find hope
I'm stuck down here in this hole
I'll dig my way out

I'll stand just like a statue
Just like you
Acting like the sky's just about to fall
With everything I can't do
I can't move
In the end I'll find my way back home
(Find myself at home)
Just say something
Don't leave me here with nothing
I know I deserve more than this
The self-destruction
I'll think 'till I can't function
I should've seen it coming to this

And every second I breathe
I'm coming closer
With every day that I see
I'm getting older
With every step that I take

I'm moving further
Away from what I am and who I was

Let go of yourself like you let go of me
You were my oxygen
And now it's hard to breathe
This is the final page
So now I'll set you free
You were my everything
I was your empathy [x2]

I'll stand just like a statue
Just like you
Acting like the sky's just about to fall
With everything I can't do
I can't move
In the end I'll find my way back home
(Find myself at home)
Just say something
Don't leave me here with nothing
I know I deserve more than this
The self-destruction
I'll think 'till I can't function
I should've seen it coming to this

(Let go of yourself like you let go of me)
(And every second I breathe I'm coming closer)
(You were my oxygen And now it's hard to breathe)
(This is the final page So now I'll set you free)
(You were my everything I was your empathy)

I'll take the blame
If you take my conscience
I'll take the blame
If you take my conscience
I'll take the blame
If you take my conscience

Let go of yourself like you let go of me
You were my oxygen
And now it's hard to breathe
This is the final page
So now I'll set you free
You were my everything
I was your empathy
