

True

EDEN

Boy I feel elusive
Falling loose

Looking down the line
Got so much to show you
I know that sometimes
Some things not for me
I know what I want
And it keeps me lonely

Writing in all caps
Trying to make it mean something
Feeling will come back
Let it weigh down on you
Elysian facades
Keep my hands up
Holyfields
Come and see how comfort kills
Interlinked don't want much else
Just trying to live like august feels
Feel

Unchecked growth like cancer cells

Sometimes I wish
That I was somebody else

True love, true love
No rush, no rush
No whys, no whys
Just cause, just cause
Just cause, just cause

You're not looking
And still seeing something
Part of me knows nothing
I could hear could be enough
To make me feel something I don't

True love is true love
No rush, no rush
No whys, no whys
Just cause, just cause
Just cause, just cause
