

Last dance, are you ready or not?
No chance that we make this out alive
I thought we could see a way out in time

But it got so dark
Where'd the light go?
Talking so much
Save the ozone
Saying nothing
Except to tell me
It's late

So I wish you sweet dreams
If you want to sleep on me
No tears in the morning
It's alright, it's alright
It's all just sweet dreams
And you're sleeping on me
Even though it's not real
It's alright, it's alright

By the time you wake up
I'm on the other side of the river
Kept my face dry
Don't say you feel different now
It's your loss, your loss, your loss
If you're lost
By the time you wake up
Wonder how it got so distant
Summertime skies
Feel different without me now
It's your loss, your loss, your loss
It's your loss, your loss, your loss

Don't ask if you don't want to find out
You're so sad when you don't get what you want
So tired of trying to change your mind

Comme ci comme ça
Feelings come and go
Take what you want
Feeling no remorse
Head on my chest
Still so comfortable

So I wish you sweet dreams
If you want to sleep on me
No tears in the morning
It's alright, it's alright
It's all just sweet dreams
And you're sleeping on me
Even though it's not real

By the time you wake up
I'm on the other side of the river

Don't say you feel different now
It's your loss, your loss, your loss
If you're lost
By the time you wake up
Summertime skies
It's your loss, your loss, your loss
It's your loss, your loss, your loss

It's your loss, your loss, your loss
It's your loss, your loss, your loss
Loss
