how could i ever see this blueprint of reality spoiling for a fight i left no stone unturned for ever and one day the gale force in my heart will stay and i don`t care a straw about the lessons learned free i can hear this haunting melody ever since the spirits rose in me the shadows of darkness or the light of the world leaving those energetic streams a soldier of fortune or a fancier at all keeping on for perennial dreams will this tide ever turn before my restless heart will burn the elfstruck time elapses to the eventide it is a game of skill and it is playing with your will the floatlight marks the harbour there it is my guide

the spangled heaven`s gleam a neverending stream will arise in my perennial dream
