You walked in shining brighter than a headlight Turning every head like a diamond in a coal mine Packing more punch than a Mississippi fist fight Oh oh my my

Walked my way, took my hand, said "Let's go" Had more game than the Mandalay Casino Thought I hit the jackpot, I was on a good roll Shows you what I know

Too good to be true
Like diamonds on the soles of my shoes
Like money falling outta the blue
Don't be fooled
He ain't nothing but too good to be real
Don't believe the way he's making you feel
He'll break your pretty heart in two
Momma told me 'bout boys like you
Too good to be true

Before I knew it my heartstrings unwound I fell faster than a cannonball straight down Everybody talking all over this town "Look there he goes again"

Lie lie like a politician Shoulda read the headlines, paid more attention To my suspicions, my intuition I shoulda listened

Too good to be true
Like diamonds on the soles of my shoes
Like money falling outta the blue
Don't be fooled
He ain't nothing but too good to be real
Don't believe the way he's making you feel
He'll break your pretty heart in two
Momma told me 'bout boys like you
Too good to be true

I should seen it from a mile away I should have called a spade a spade I should known that you were...

Too good to be true
Like diamonds on the soles of my shoes
Like money falling outta the blue
Don't be fooled
He ain't nothing but too good to be real
Don't believe the way he's making you feel
He'll break your pretty heart in two
Momma told me 'bout boys like you
Too good to be true
Too good to be true

You're just too good to be Too good to be

You're just too good to be Too good to be You're just too good to be true

Too good to be true
You're just too good to be true
You're just too good to be true
Yeah
You're just too good to be true
