

Prophecy Unbound

Edge Of Paradise

Intertwined, are our lives in this
Cosmic dance of patterns
We don't understand
I walk along the corridors of fate
Where futures coexist inside this tangled web

Maze of madness, triumphs and bliss
Where darkest thoughts found ways to exist

Pull me out of here
My mind can't take this place
Every possibility
I see your face
And the life I've known
It starts to fade away
I see my perfect paradise

And I, I choose to face the truth inside myself
Shatter the ghosts of what could have been
I resurrect my will to merge my heart and Mind (Mind)

Prophecy unbound in this labyrinth of all possibilities
Would you give it all away
For a dream you chase each day?
Would you cross that line
Leave the life you know behind?

Maze of madness, triumphs and bliss
Where darkest thoughts found ways to exist

Pull me out of here
My mind can't take this place
Every possibility
I see your face
And the life I've known
It starts to fade away
I see my perfect paradise

And I, I choose to face the truth inside myself
Shatter the ghosts of what could have been
I resurrect my will to merge my heart and mind

It's time to face the virtual void
Fragments of reality catch or they will fall

I'll walk the razor's edge for us
Even if we're strangers here
You'll have my trust
I saw my strength in the mirror
The mirror of my mind
It's by design
Prophecy unbound

And I, I have to face the truth inside myself
Shatter the ghosts of what could have been
I resurrect my will to merge my heart and mind
