

Give It Another Day

Edie Brickell & New Bohemians

You started it, you wanted it
You got it and then
You go and pretend that you didn't

Complacency, a vacancy
Checks into your heart
And begs like a dog 'til you kick it

'Til you do, 'til you do
Might as well give it another day
Give it another day

I carried you, I buried you
With your only love
It wasn't enough for you, was it?

I'll wait for you, I'll stay for you
I'll play like a friend
Until you begin to recover

'Til you do, 'til you do
Might as well give it another day
Give it another day

I can tell you're doin' well
It's not so easy to
Believe in someone else

'Til you do, 'til you do
Might as well give it another day
Give it another day
Give it another day

I can tell you're doin' well
It's not so easy to
Believe in someone else
