

Obvious

Edie Brickell & New Bohemians

They don't play that way over in Texarkana
Grinnin' like a junky monkey for your banana
Scatter it around like a Mexican hat
All over the town, what's the matter with that

It's obvious, it's obvious, so obvious
It's obvious, it's obvious, obvious

Flattering and asking for a little favor
Shadow of a dancer and a nasty neighbor
Saddle up beside your like a sneaky snake
Hissin' and a-kissin', is it real or fake?

It's obvious, it's obvious, so obvious
Obvious, it's obvious, so obvious

You never know how this is feelin'
You never felt this way before
You never know just how I'm feelin'

Obvious
It's obvious
So obvious

You never know just what I'm feelin'
You never felt this way at all
You never know just what I'm feelin'

I don't play that way
I don't play that way
I don't play that way
I don't play that way
I don't play that way
I don't play that way
