

Sun's Gonna Shine

Edie Brickell & New Bohemians

Lonely broken feeling
Lonely to my soul

You got the look, you got the feel
You got the face of true love
You got the charm, you got appeal
I got to let you go

So long, sweet embraces
So long, summertime

You got the power, you got the faith
You got the El Camino
You got the night, you got the day
I got the ole dark cloud

The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again

Long time
I've been waiting a long time
Long enough

You got the song, you got the dance
You got the inspiration
You got it all in the palm of your hand
I got the rolling wheel

The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again

The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again

Something tells me it'll be all right
Something tells me it's gonna be okay
Something tells me it'll be all right
Something tells me it's gonna be okay

The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again

The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
The sun is gonna shine again
