(Black gold, black gold
Black gold, black gold)

I know you better than you know yourself
You're not a secret or a story to tell
I walk on runways just to know you're safe
Ain't nothing sacred in this hostile place

Don't change
Don't change
I need you tonight
I need you tonight
Don't change
Don't change
We'll take down satelllites
Take down satelllites

You're not gonna be afraid
Now it's a little late

Black gold is the color
The dawn never comes
And we don't answer when you're wrong
Black gold like no other
Did we ever belong?
Just take them on and then we're gone

Black gold is the color
The dawn never comes
And we can't answer

Put your hand up if you're running scared
Choke my engine, it cannot be repaired
Our superheroes, well, where are they now?
Put your foot down till the petrol runs out

Don't change
Don't change
I need you tonight
I need you tonight
Don't change
Don't change
We'll take down satelllites
Take down satelllites

You're not gonna be afraid
Now it's a little late

Black gold is the color
The dawn never comes
And we don't answer when you're wrong
Black gold like no other
Did we ever belong?
Just take them on and then we're gone

Black gold is the color
The dawn never comes

And we don't answer when you're wrong
Did we ever belong?
Just take them on and then we're gone

Black gold is the color
The dawn never comes
Black gold is the color
Did we ever belong?
