

Heart Attack

Editors

I couldn't look at you
Orbit my life like a satellite
Let out a battle cry
Angels of lust in the black and white

We were always meant for this
Shot through the dark, my reason to exist
Why

My baby don't wanna be
Near anyone when shit gets tight
Love is on fire again
Burn the cause in my armored fight

We were always meant for this
Shot through the dark, my reason to exist
Why

No one will love you more than I do
I can promise you that
And when your love breaks up inside you
Like a heart attack
No one will love you more than I do
I can promise you that
And when your love breaks up inside you
Like a heart attack

I wouldn't answer straight
Moan my words till they sound alright
Who listens to us anyway?
My audience is you tonight

We were always meant for this
Shot through the dark, my reason to exist
Why

No one will love you more than I do
I can promise you that
And when your love breaks up inside you
Like a heart attack
No one will love you more than I do
I can promise you that
And when your love breaks up inside you
Like a heart attack

We were always meant for this
Shot through the dark, my reason to exist, why

No one will love you more than I do
I can promise you that
And when your love breaks up inside you
Like a heart attack
No one will love you more than I do
I can promise you that
And when your love breaks up inside you
Like a heart attack

No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
No one will love you more than I do
