

This House Is Full of Noise

Editors

Baby don't go and lose it again,
You would always run,
Out of the sun and into the rain.

This house just creeps, it won't let you sleep.
All that noise, there in your brain,
Won't give you peace.

It says
I won't let you go where there's rivers or townfolks,
I won't let you see 'cause you're safe here, safe here with me.

Baby, don't go, and love him again,
You will always leap,
Into a fire, into a flame.

This house just aches, to keep you save.
You're in every single thing.
You're in the walls, you're in the space.

It says
I won't let you go, where there's rivers or townfolks,
I won't let you see 'cause you're safe here, safe here with me.

I won't let you go where there's rivers or townfolks,
I won't let you see 'cause you're safe here, safe here with me.

Don't let your friends know, you can't pay your debts.
Don't let your friends know, you can't pay your debts.

Don't let your friends know, you can't pay your debts.
Don't let your friends know, you can't pay your debts.

Don't let your friends know...
Oh-Ah-Oh-Oh...
