

"Love"

Edo Saiya

You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
I love you consent
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love, yeah

You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout us
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love (Thing 'bout love)
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout us
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know, you ain't even know

When you talk to me, talk to me nice, but you don't hear me, though
When you out, you say you missed me all night, but don't come near me, though
What's the reason for? Why you not coming around?
I'm not the one to be playing with now
Cut that bitch off, if she dragging me down
Text me, you love me, I text back like "how"?
Talk all the way you want you ain't showing it
This new to you and I'm knowing it
Gave you a shot and you blowing it
Listened to my friends they say you not the one to trust
But they don't even know a damn thing about us

I noticed that you try
Hopeful that it works but no my hopes are never high
I never really had a real one, that's tough
Guess I don't really know a damn thing about love

You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love

You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout us
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love (Thing 'bout love)
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout us
You ain't even know a damn thing 'bout love
You ain't even know, you ain't even know
