

Much Ado About Nothing

Edson

When you're paranoid and beyond
Every sign of recognition, I respond
With misplaced attacks and despair
In a cautious voice I ask you to beware

When I'm paranoid and beyond
Every sign of recognition, you respond
With some dirty words and despair
In a vicious voice you ask me to beware

All hell's breaking loose (Unfair and untrue)
All hell's breaking loose (I'm just like you)
Way too much ado
About nothing and I wish you knew

When you're paralysed to a frown
And you're twisting every word I say around
When I speak the truth and you say
That I'm better off without you anyway

All hell's breaking loose (Unfair and untrue)
All hell's breaking loose (I'm just like you)
Way too much ado
About nothing and I wish you knew

Do you remember how?
We got started, what I said and why?
Do you remember when?
Think of it and think again

All hell's breaking loose (Unfair and untrue)
All hell's breaking loose (I'm just like you)
Way too much ado
About nothing and I wish you knew
