Love Life

Edward Maya

Yes you can call my heart
My thoughts are leaving me straight into your heart
What should I do? I'm looking to you

Ooh, you can call me love babe You can run, you can hide but your heart won't escape my arms

I was alone, no one else was around My thoughts are leaving you straight into your heart What should I do? I'm looking to you

Ooh, you can call me love babe You can run, you can hide but your heart won't escape my arms

I was alone, no one else was around My thoughts are leaving you straight into your heart What should I do? I'm looking to you
