

Colder

Edwin Raphael

And I see you sipping on water
You tell me "I'm not feeling good enough"
And I'm not trying anymore
Maybe you'll be at my door

And I wonder what makes you, laugh these days
And I wonder what makes you, you
Is it getting colder, colder, colder for you
Does it feel like you're living a lie

Can you, take it anymore
Can you, take it anymore
Can you, take it anymore
Can you, take it anymore
Can you

And I wonder what makes you, laugh these days
And I wonder what makes you, you
Is it getting colder, colder, colder for you
Does it feel like you're living a lie
Is it getting colder, colder, colder for you
Does it feel like you're living a lie

Can you, take it anymore
Can you, take it anymore
Can you, take it anymore
Can you, take it anymore now

Take it, take it, anymore
Take it, take it, anymore

Can you
Take it anymore
