

Deceive Me So Easy

Edwin Raphael

Why you silent?
Won't you chime in
It's all relevant
You're running ground, running ground
Elusive I see
Evade it, might be
Bella I see
You're running ground, running ground

Deceive me so easy that
I fall for every sign now
But I never tried out
What it's like, what it's like to
Leave everybody you know
Leave everybody outside

Her favourite flavour
It's top shelf surely
Can't be it, can't be it
Somethings can't be saved
Oh, would I like to live like this
Can I see what's in between
The lines of wells
Are empty after that

Deceive me so easy that
I fall for every sign now
I never tried out
What it's like, what it's like to
Leave everybody you know
Leave everybody outside

Could you believe the irony?
The particles we cannot see
The lines between the
Crystals in the sand
Could you believe the irony?
The particles we cannot see
The lines between the
Crystals in the sand
