

Everything Is Aesthetic

Edwin Raphael

It's not rocket science
It's so outside the lines
We're just going for a high
We're just going for a lie
Cause she's the prettiest girl
That you've ever seen
Stop and stare
Will you try and play a dare?

Everything is aesthetic
Everyone's putting on a show
Everything is aesthetic
Nothing's really yours

And on Fridays
You'd be over
And on the same days
You'd be lying
Will you think of the horizon
You'd be losing all your sights
You'd be losing all your minds

You like your violets
But you'll get roses tonight
Cause I'm feeling
Feeling the vibe
Cause she's the prettiest girl
That you've ever seen
Something out of a vogue magazine

Everything is aesthetic
Everyone's putting on a show
Everything is aesthetic
Nothing's really yours

And on Fridays
You'd be over
And on the same days
You'd be lying
Will you think of the horizon
You'd be losing all your sights
You'd be losing all your minds

Stop forgetting yourself
This is not about you
Won't you control yourself
If you had to
