

Green Eyes

Edwin Raphael

Eliza, you're on the green line
And Eliza, you're alright
And Eliza, you're on my mind
And Eliza, bye bye

You're breaking my heart, you're breaking it all
You're pulling my apart like you have no soul
We can't be friends darling
Wanna kiss your neck all over again

And you used to fight it over in my head
But now I see a lot clearer, bye bye
And you used to fight it over in my bed
But now I see a lot clearer, bye bye

And I I can't tell you reasons
Why why you're fighting so hard
And I I can't tell you reasons
Why why you're fighting so hard

You got green eyes by the sea
You got green eyes by the sea
You got green eyes by the sea
You got green eyes by the sea

And I I can't tell you reasons
Why why you're fighting so hard
And I I can't tell you reasons
Why why you're fighting so hard
