

Sober

Edwin Raphael

And sadness is something you can't take away
And all of yours is true
You were just sixteen when you lost your way, yeah
Said you've seen it all before

And you left the room with your perfume lingering
Got more questions for you
Said you like poets 'cause they speak only the truth
Everyone's so scared to lose

And it's really not about loving all that you see
So many reasons to be
You can paint the sky whatever colour you desire
What's it really like?

And you're crying out for these words, I know
With you, moving out 'cause you're losing hope
Won't you come around? Just be sober now
Just be sober, just be sober, sober, sober now

And you're crying out for these words I know
With you moving out cause you're lo
Sing hope
Won't you come around?

Just be sober now, just be sober
Just be sober, sober, sober now
Just be sober, sober, sober now
Just be sober, sober, sober now
Just be sober, sober, sober now
