

The After

Edwin Raphael

Some days the sun rushes down
Reminds me why we try and love
Permanence is all I wanted
But I leave thirsty now
But I leave thirsty now

An ocean to bring us together
Sail sail, ma would say
Flexing to shine, I try
But I leave thirsty now
But I leave thirsty now

And you can't, you can't leave me alone here
This time I will try and fight
And you can't, you can't leave me alone here
This time I will try and fight

Some days the sun rushes down
Reminds me why we try and love
