

Under Weather

Edwin Raphael

Under weather
Sedating these thoughts
Keep looking
Keep looking at your watch

Under pressure
Been feeling sometimes
Try blinking
But everything remains

Forgive me, I've been told away
This affinity, I'll press
If you stare long enough
And you say it right, I'll stay

You're such a marvel
When no one comes close
You're dancing lighter
Because feelings fight blows
You sure think
You know me well
You sure think
You know me well

So much of her own person
She won't even listen
It's all violent now
Maybe things will go
Things
Things will fade away
Maybe things will go
You know me well
Fade away

You know me well
You know me well
You know me well
