

Mama Should Be Here Too

Edwin Starr

Son of mine, the chill is nice to be together
After all the years we've been apart
Now a new life begins
It's time to make amends
And bring back some good times
We used to share back when

Oh, Mama should be here too
Mama should be here too

Son of mine, things are going fine for us now
No more sounds of hard knocks at the door
But I feel guilty in spite (In spite)
That there's still you and I (You and I)
'Cause one thing is missing
That makes both our lives

Oh, Mama should be here too
Mama should be here too, ooh

Happy times (Happy times) run through my mind (Run through my mind)
Then we had each other
You and me and she made three
Our family was together
Now time has brought us back again
To pick up where we left off
Happy and live (Happy and live), but still I cry (Still I cry)
'Cause time ain't all we've lost

Woah, Mama should be here too
Mama should be here too

Mama should be here too
