

Bored

Edwyn Collins

Halfway down a mountainside
And I'm bored, so bored
Halfway down a mountainside
And I'm bored, so bored

I'm not sure what to do with myself
I'm not sure what to do, what to say
I'm doing the splits, I'm changing
I'm not sure where my heart is
I'm halfway down to the void
To the underground
And now I know what I want
Where I'm going

Halfway down a mountainside
And I'm bored, so bored

I'm not sure what to do with myself
I'm not sure what to do, what to say
I'm feeling down, I don't like it
I must admit I'm changing
And now I know the simple things
Make my world go round
And now I know those simple things
Turn my world around
I'm halfway down to where I'm going
I'm halfway down to where I'm going...
