

I Guess We Were Young

Edwyn Collins

She was and so was I
Pretty girl, worthy boy
But saw that she was everything
I guess we were young
In the sunshine, in the rain
Easy (?) seashell eyes
I was (?) not sure that she
I guess we were young

Forget me now
We've veered off course
We can't go back
Forget me
Forget me now
We've veered off course
We can't go back
Forget me

Splitting up, too many fights
The dark days and the lonely nights
Slipping from reality
I guess we were young
What a joke, what a lie
Throw it out, too much drive never knew just what we had
i guess we were young

Forget me now
We've veered off course
We can't go back
Forget me
Forget me now
We've veered off course
We can't go back
Forget me

Forget me now
We've veered off course
We can't go back
Believe me
Forget me now
We've veered off course
We can't go back
Forget me

The price you pay
The price you pay
The price you pay
The price you pay