

Sometimes Always Never

Edwyn Collins

Sometimes, always, never

Sometimes, always, never
Something else changed
Something else changed
I don't know what
Something else changed
Something else changed

Sometimes, always, never
I'm looking forward
To clear my hands
Trying to understand
The change, the change
The change

Sometimes, always, never

Sometimes, always, never
Sometimes I wonder
What's going on
It's all gone wrong
And though I've tried to
I can't hold on
To what has gone

Sometimes, always, never
I don't know what

Sometimes, always, never
Something else changed
I don't know what
Something else changed
Sometimes, always, never
