

Tensions Rising

Edwyn Collins

My story goes, I'm handing homework
North to east, getting closer
Near my home, I'm feeling wiser
Tensions rising, getting higher

[?] days getting sweeter
Winter's gone, the skies are clearer
The warmth I feel is getting stronger
Tensions rising, a-getting higher

Who can say a better day
Has come upon me
Where's the pressure
It's coming, pressure down

Tensions rising
I'm getting higher
Tensions rising
I'm getting higher
Tensions rising
I'm getting higher
Tensions rising
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
I'm getting higher
