She locked herself in the bathroom again So I am pissing in the yard I have to laugh when I think how far it's gone But things aren't funny any more

I drew a line into the dirt And dared her to step right across it And she did

So I am knocking on the door again I say, "Do you want to be alone?" She says, "No I don't wanna be alone But I think that you do

I drew a line into the dirt And dared her to step right across it And she did

And I know she's right, I know how it would be If I had my own way with the world As I know it should be

She locked herself in the bathroom again So I've been shutting down the lights And I don't know if I'll ever go back again I'm drivin' straight into the night
