

Earth to Dora

Eels

Dear Dora
Earth to Dora
Love, Earth

Sweet girl, wake up now
You don't know what you're worth
So much, look up now
See that sun smiling down on you
Give him a hug
He's been smiling since your birth

Hey, Dora
What do you know?
Magic happens everywhere you go

Silly girl, open your eyes
There's so many things that you don't know
So much, just lift up your hat
Who's that smiling at you in the mirror?
Give her a kiss
She can smile as long as she wants

Dear Dora
I need a muse, you're my muse
Therefore someone needs you
So much, look up now
See that sun smiling down on you
Give us a hug
We'll be smiling as long as you're here

Love, Mark
