

HEARTBEAT

Eem Triplin

Ooh, Ooh

I never said I was perfect I'm being honest bae
Now I ain't mean to just hurt you I mean that honestly
You said I wasted your time and want me to give it back
I know it's not my fault all the feelings we had
Every time that you called it always seemed to be bad
I know it's killing you softly, It's breaking you in
'Cause had to beat up a heartbeat, it always gonna beat up a heartbeat (yeah, hahahaha)

Yeah, like baby tell me how you feel about me (yeah)
Do you really wanna see me down? (yeah)
I know you see me coming down without you (yeah)
Bet you wanna come and see me now (yeah)
All sick and tired of this jealousy (yeah)
Like is there something you're not telling me (yeah)
You say you're hurting from a broken heart (yeah)
Well baby come to me, I got the remedy (yeah)

Yeah-yeah, I gave you all that I can
All just to show you that I could 'cause I told you that I would
My missions never change, I'm tryna make it out the hood
And I could've taken you with me, but you ain't understood
And I know (yeah, yeah)
You tell your friends that I'm a dog, and you call me Kujo (yeah, yeah)
You make it seem up on the Gram like you Ron Suno (yeah, yeah)
Yeah, I thought you was the one for me, my number uno (yeah, yeah)
But now you've gone like Kudos, but I just thought I'd let you know
