

Stephanie is not my ho
Playin' with my mind, I had to let her go
Now she just another girl I know
You were mine but you switched sides on me
And I know in your mind you reversed time, do it all again
And that's why in the meantime, I think it should end
Killed my vibe, seen you courtside, sittin' with your man
It remind me that I should never fall in love again

You were mine, now you not my ho
It's funny, now it all makes sense
Ashley was never my bitch
And Stephanie was always his
I'm guessin' it was just my turn
That fire made the whole bridge burn
I can be hard-headed, real stern
But fuck it, man, you live and you learn

Stephanie was never my ho
Playin' with my mind, I had to let her go
Now she just another girl I know
You were mine but you switched sides on me
And I know in your mind you reversed time, do it all again
And that's why in the meantime, I think it should end
Killed my vibe, seen you courtside, sittin' with your man
It remind me that I should never fall in love again

She see a nigga poppin', now she actin' like a fan
Good luck, baby, come and catch me if you can
I'm flyin' to your city, I'm'a catch you when I land
These outta state girls treat me better than my home hoes
She do what she want, ass fatter 'cause it's homegrown
Bend her down and she gon' come back up just like a yo-yo
I was out in New York, shoppin' down in SoHo
I made it out the trenches, made it out the row home
When Stephanie broke my heart
I evolved, I became who I am, who I are Never would I have thought I would take this shit far
Now I'm up with the Moon and the stars
If it's one thing you should know, I ain't never, ever goin' broke
Eem Trip, Mr. Let-A-Bitch-Go, say it one time for the folks

Stephanie is not my ho
Playin' with my mind, I had to let her go
Now she just another girl I know
You were mine but you switched sides on me
And I know in your mind you reversed time, do it all again
And that's why in the meantime, I think it should end
Killed my vibe, seen you courtside, sittin' with your man
It remind me that I should never fall in love again
