Dogwalking

Eggnoise

walking down an empty street drag behind my own six feet no pretence it ain't no scheme it's dogwalking

take it slow or speed the ride left or right it don't make a fight whatever the weather we meet outside
it's dogwalking

passing by the lonely scene there comes a big black dog a barking at me the coast is clear he don't chase me
it's dogwalking

take your dog and I'll take mine we can walk together all the time ain't no worry 'bout swinging out loud
it's dogwalking
"this is becoming rather repetitive" well I'm passing through the town it's getting dark but that's alright in the night, feeling right, just dogwalking seems you finally found another another one to walk your dog for you

I'm walking down your street child and I'm gonna walk your dog for you tonight
