

Drown Like You

Ego Likeness

I am alone...
Might find some kind of brilliant understanding
Might rise above the waves
That I see you drown in
Can't see the ocean for all the seas
Can't drown in water
When all you do is leave me behind

I am alone...
You wouldn't have to fall below the waves
If you could walk across like me
You wouldn't have to carry all this weight
That puts you down into the sea

So slip into the skin
That I know you feel safe in
And make up all the games
That hide your little soul in vain

I am alone...
You wouldn't have to fall below the waves...
I am alone...
