

Bloom

Egzod

You said you had to go, I said, "Wait"
It all happened way too fast for me
I'm guessing that we're done, what a shame
But if we think about it carefully

I'm good on my own, don't feel alone
At least that's what I'm telling myself every night
Pillows are cold, silence is gold
Kind of start to get used to it now

Give me a couple more days
I'm beginning to feel like I'm better without you
No tears I cried are in vain
Take a look at me, look at the way that I bloom

Give me a couple more days
I'm beginning to feel like I'm better without you
No tears I cried are in vain
Take a look at me, look at the way that I bloom

Take a look at me, look at the way that I bloom
Take a look at me, look at the way that I bloom

Just needed some time, time to grow
They say flowers don't bloom overnight
And now that you are gone, finally know
It was never you who made me shine

I'm good on my own, don't feel alone
At least that's what I'm telling myself every night
Pillows are cold, silence is gold
Kind of start to get used to it now

Give me a couple more days
I'm beginning to feel like I'm better without you
No tears I cried are in vain
Take a look at me, look at the way that I bloom

Give me a couple more days
I'm beginning to feel like I'm better without you
No tears I cried are in vain
Take a look at me, look at the way that I bloom

Take a look at me, look at the way that I bloom
Take a look at me, look at the way that I bloom
