

Break The Chains

Egzod

Every morning
My mind is fixated on being free
To go where I wanted
And no one's there to ever judge me

Come take me home
Oh take me there where I belong
To the place I know
Yeah I know, oh-oh

Nothing they can say will break us
'Cause tonight
It's all about the great escape and
We will rise
Further than promised lands
Nothing they can say will wake us
Up tonight

We'll break the chains
We'll break the chains
We'll break the chains
We'll break the chains
We'll break the chains

Show me the honest
And light up all the things I need to see
Make me a promise
You'll be part of my to-be memories

So take me home
'Cause I don't know which way to go
To the place I know
Yeah I know, oh-oh

Nothing they can say will break us
'Cause tonight
It's all about the great escape and
We will rise
Further than promised lands
Nothing they can say will wake us
Up tonight

We'll break the chains
We'll break the chains
We'll break the chains
We'll break the chains
We'll break the chains
