Runaway

Egzod

I would never wait for something
To let it go to watse
With everything at stake, hmmm
Not that I won't take it all back
I just wanna make this thing last
But we're running out of time

We were doing alright
Holding on, but I'm losing the fight
Could we run away?
I know if we just
Hit ground, running
Closing off all the world with the lack of it in
Bending before the break
Don't you know, you and me we can run away

You and me we can run away
Run away, run away

You and me we can run away
You and me we can run away

You would never stay for someone
That wasn't worth the wait
Counting down the days, ahaa-hmm
I know we're not moving onward
I just wanna trust in your word
But we're running out of time

We were doing alright
Holding on, but I'm losing the fight
Could we run away?
I know if we just
Hit ground, running
Closing off all the world with the lack of it in
Bending before the break
Don't you know, you and me we can run away

You and me we can run away
Run away, run away
Check

You and me we can run away
You and me we can run away
