Wake Up

Egzod

Can I break this hold from you?
It would mean everything
To me if I do
Tired of hearing excuses your making
Future is set it is mine for the taking
Spending a lifetime living a life made up
I need to, Wake up

Holding my breath until you go
You only wanted me to fail
I'm this way because of you
Fought everyday to overcome, to spite you
Wake up
Wake up
Tired of hearing excuses your making
Future is set it is mine for the taking
Spending a lifetime living a life made up
I need to
Wake up
