

A Bridge Of Iron And Blood

Eidola

I am all, and I was made to suffer
I will watch as everything that I love dies
I am one, and I was ground down to nothing
I will burn every bridge down in blood
In blood

I will burn every bridge down in blood
Sour the fruit, pull every ounce of sinew from your rotten root (Root
)
Fiend, fiend, pray to your God
While I sharpen the iron

I am the penitent man
An oracle for the contrite
I set the precedent
For disillusionment in my demise

This is my last chance
I'm gonna show you that I was worthy all along

Cast out, an exodus from Eden
Suffocate me in a spite of endless smoke
Until I've collapsed both of my lungs
There will be nothing left behind
But a carcass of brittle bone
I'll destroy everything that you've grown
Everything that you've built from the inside
I will watch you suffer and choke until you die

Seek out a way to finally end this
Endless contusion on my nervous system
This system will weigh you down
(You down, you down, you down, you down)
Seek out a way to finally end this
Endless contusion on my nervous system
This system will weigh you down
(You down, you down, you down, you down)

You can't escape the end
I can't erase the damage that you've done
Until everyone's exposed
Because everyone's a fake
And everyone's a liar
And everyone's a leech
And I'm so fucking tired

Say you were always the enemy
Stay in the cage that you built for me
Run, you disgust every part of me
Run from your coming calamity
