

Ashes In Gehinnom

Eidola

Oh faithful children
Welcome to the bloc
Are you prepared for a greater purpose?
Sacrificial twits

I've become the beast
A golden calf at the alter
The serpent's head I used to chew through my own leg
Why were we so afraid
A perfect penitent father
A father for our dying day

Almighty lion
I will strangle you by the hairs of your mane
Precious lamb
I will come for you again

Holy fire
I pray you scorch the Earth
No leaders left to follow
No kings, just frail and vile men
I can't continue to carry on
When all I know is sorrow and all I think about is death

Being burned alive
Being torn apart from the inside
This is madness
Don't tell me not to panic

I can't rebuild from a place of endless nothing
I can't refrain from annihilation (Annihilation)
A faith that never falters (A serpent formed out of alder)
A blade that thirsts for knowledge knows that I never sleep
Why were we so convinced? (An endless desert to wander)
A fate we never have to pay

Blessed Hadraniel
I pray you let me in

Holy fire
I pray you scorch the Earth
No kings, just frail and vile men
I can't continue to carry on
When all I know is sorrow and all I think about is death

Don't tell me not to panic
I became the beast
Don't let me suffer piece by piece
Don't let me be afraid
I'll find a way to chew through my own leg

Is it justice to keep a man locked in a cage?
In a solstice, we are all so full of rage
Is it justice to keep a man locked in a cage?
In a solstice, we are all so full of rage
Is it justice to keep a man locked in a cage?

In a solstice, we are all so full of rage
