

Going Nowhere

Eidola

Is everybody in?
Because no one is speaking
Perpetual bliss
Through the mouth of the martyr
How do you know that you're alive?
Without a voice?
Without questions?

(They compromise their faith without a need for reason)
Will love find us as lonely men
(They find a flaw in every crevice, every inch of the soul)
Knowing what we can't obtain

You were my savior
You gave me the gift
Gave me the children
My purpose
To retrace the lines
And find out how it all came to be

Do you believe the afterlife is eternal?
What are you looking for?
If death is an escape, then why are you waiting?
Life is too perfect for words

(They compromise their faith without a need for reason)
Will truth find us in the end
(They find a flaw in every crevice, every inch of the soul)
Never to know of our bliss
You were my savior

You were my savior
You gave me the gift
Gave me the children
My purpose
To retrace the lines
And find out how it all came to be
Find out how it all came to be

We move in circles
We move in circles

This is evidence
Of men who never existed
Never to have walked the earth
But forever bathed in sin
With nothing to lose
And everything to gain
We're going nowhere (We're going nowhere)
Faster than we planned
