Pugna E Eterna

Eidola

From the start we built a hole
To trap our mind and kill our soul
Gave our self a place to hide
Infinite space and measurable time

What once was lost can now be found
Irrational thought, immovable sound
Transcendent solarplex align
An eye for an eye leaves everyone blind

Come with me and find a home
In light, in dark, in water and stone

As the world begins to come undone
There is no you, there is only one
