

Twilight

Along the New York skyline
As we sit and talk for hours
Sipping coffee on the shore
Every waking moment with you
Is all that I live for

No matter what the future holds for us (Future holds for us)
I promise you this ship will never rust

I could paint you a thousand pictures
I could sing you a million words
This life's not long enough to show you everything you're worth
I thank God that you're still with me
And I'll do the best I can
To prove to you that I'm still worth a damn

I choose you
And everything that you've been through
Da Vinci couldn't capture
The beauty in your eyes
Every day's a renaissance
Until we say goodbye

I love you more than you can comprehend (I love you, I love you)
)
I'll be with you until the bitter end

I could paint you a thousand pictures
I could sing you a million words
This life's not long enough to show you everything you're worth
I thank God that you're still with me
And I'll do the best I can
To prove to you that I'm still worth a damn

And I'm sorry for the ways I've let you down
Every time I let you down, every time I let you down
When I've lost myself, it's your grace that I have found

I could paint you a thousand pictures
I could sing you a million words
This life's not long enough to show you everything you're worth
I thank God that you're still with me
And I'll do the best I can
To prove to you that I'm still worth a damn
