Eighteen Visions

She couldn't kill me from the start
She thought that she could break me heart
I'm not the one that's been held down
Because you're the one that's letting me go
See me dancin' in the rain
See me insane
If you could feel my pain then you'd know
I'll try to run and hide
This hot pink is way too bright
I'm pretty in pink and these looks could kill if she finds me
This hot pink is way too bright
I could be so abstract
She wouldn't know what to do
But would she leave me alone?
If she knew that I was on fire

She couldn't kill me from the start
She thought she could break my heart
You're only holding me down
I don't want you around
Sugar, sugar
Please leave me alone
Sugar, Sugar
I could be so abstract

So don't you fuckin' tell me that I'm wrong
