

Kill the Flame

Einherjer

A change of shadows
In the forest old
Into the cold
A darkness descends
And tightens the grip
It kills the light
Yeah, kills the light

A cry above the suffering
A cry above the earth
You reap what you sow
Yeah, what you sow

Kill, kill the flame
For I am the bleeding man
Reap, reap the earth
You will now kill the flame

A change of pace
For the greed of man
Above the salt
A call for blood
A call for death
Above the waves
Above it all

Kill, kill the flame
For I am the bleeding man
Reap, reap the earth
You will now kill the flame

Come be heard
All the silent screams
Come and see
All the vivid dreams

Kill, kill the flame
For I am the bleeding man
Reap, reap the earth
You will now kill the flame
