

Stars

Einherjer

Stars
In the night sky
In the darkness
For eternity

Echoes
From the distant past
As timeless
As infinity

Constant
Ceaseless

Paint the skies
With scattered sparks
All like fire
In perfect arcs

Constant
Ceaseless
Enduring
Steadfast

Guidance from afar
On the canvas of the night
In a symphony of stars
Guidance from afar
From the north of the night
In a symphony of stars

Pure black
Crystal clear
Behind the lights
Across the skies

High above
The dying night
In the twilight
The dawning light

Constant
Ceaseless
Enduring
Steadfast

Guidance from afar
On the canvas of the night
In a symphony of stars
Guidance from afar
From the north of the night
In a symphony of stars
