Blackened Crown

A face broken upstairs, I fall down Tumbling I lose my ground Paint my hair a blackened crown Lift my head as I cry out

Did you hear me holler at you To come save me I'm in danger My pearls have fallen into mud And you were too late

This breath precious to you Knocked from me Taken so faintly and I never feel 'till it's too late

Did you hear me holler at you To come save me I'm in danger My pearls have fallen into mud And you are too late.

Did you hear me holler at you To come save me I'm in danger My pearls have fallen into mud And you are too late.

A face broken upstairs, I fall down Tumbling I lose my ground Paint my hair a blackened crown Lift my head as I cry out

Did you hear me holler at you To come save me I'm in danger My pearls have fallen into mud And you are too late.

Did you hear me holler at you To come save me I'm in danger My pearls have fallen into mud And you are too late. You are too late You are too late
