

I Won't Cry

Eisley

When you wave goodbye
I won't cry I won't cry
And when you turn your eye
I won't cry I won't cry
But I'm thinking about you lately
And I'm calling you on the phone
And when you say goodbye goodbye I won't cry

Far away from here
In a place that they call home
There lives a tiny wife with her smiling man
And the babies they have born
And we're thinking about you always
And we're calling you on the phone
And when you say goodbye goodbye I won't cry

I won't cry I won't cry
I won't cry I won't cry
I won't cry I won't cry

Breaking me down
Oh it's breaking me down
Breaking me down
Oh it's breaking me oh oh
Breaking me down

I won't cry I won't cry
I won't cry I won't cry
I won't cry I won't cry
