Drown

Ekali

Gravity
I can't deny gravity
'Cause I keep falling myself in me
Energy
I'm wasting my energy
Just striking matches you'll never see

Oh, your forces they made sure I'm blurring my focus now
And all these emotions I still have to figure out
Gotta get them from the surface from you now
So I push these feelings under 'til they drown
(Drown, drown, drown, drown, drown, drown)
'Til the drown
(Drown, drown, drown, drown, drown, drown)

Playing dead
I know they're just playing dead
But I'm not ready to let go yet
I pretend I'm over them
I pretend I'm happy now
With just being friends (Being friends)

And I know that they're still down in the dark
But I'll just make forgetting you an art
'Cause that's all I can do

Oh, your forces they made sure I'm blurring my focus now
And all these emotions I still have to figure out
Gotta get them from the surface from you now
So I push these feelings under 'til they drown
(Drown, drown, drown, drown, drown, drown)
'Til the drown
(Drown, drown, drown, drown, drown, drown)
So I push these feelings under 'til they drown
'Til the drown
